

10 Ways to Connect with IECA Educational Consultants

- 1. Invite IECA members to participate in announced campus tours and take part in consortia multi-day, multi-campus events. [contact: Janice@IECAonline.com]
- 2. Attend an IECA conference and participate in the School and College Fair or Information Swap for special programs. [contact: Rachel@IECAonline.com]
- 3. Join our Information Service Bulletin, a system for sharing contact information and campus developments with all IECA Members. [contact: Sheila@IECAonline.com]
- 4. Submit an article to the IECA newsletter, Insights, or contribute an article to our blog. [contact: Sarah@IECAonline.com]
- 5. Include a visit with IECA regional groups when someone from admissions is in town visiting schools. [contact: Janice@IECAonline.com]
- 6. Provide IECA with your school's primary contact information as a consultant/IECA liaison (name, title, address, e-mail). [contact: Sue@IECAonline.com]
- 7. Follow IECA's Facebook page, blog, Web site, tweets. [contact: Sarah@IECAonline.com]
- 8. Order sets of mailing lists for IECA members (we can sort by region, states, etc). [contact: Sheila@IECAonline.com]
- 9. Submit a "Call for Proposal" to present at an upcoming IECA conference or training workshop on a topic related to admissions or student success. [contact: Rachel@IECAonline.com]
- 10. Where appropriate, connect with an IECA affinity group or committee that relates to some specific area of expertise: international students, LD, new technologies, etc. [contact: Janice@IECAonline.com]