International	Becky Grappo and Rosa Moreno	becky.grappo@gmail.com hscounselor2002@gmail.com	2009	This group explores questions and issues around the international community and consulting. Those with a focus or interest in international consulting are encouraged to join.
Mad Hatters	Jean Hague	jeanhague@aol.com	2007	A group of 15+ year veterans getting together to share stories and discuss questions of relevance about their practices and the profession.
My CCA Users	Charlotte Klaar	Charlotte@cklaar.com		This group discusses ideas and ways in which members effectively use My CCA in their private practices.
Naviance Users	Debbie Davis and Kiersten Murphy	davis@dec-network.com kiersten@schoolconsultant.com	2009	The Naviance Users Affinity Group discusses ideas and ways in which members effectively use Naviance in their private practices.
Over the Rainbow	Nancy Masland	nancy@nancypmasland.com	2009	The group focuses on ways to expand awareness on issues involving lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered people in our industry. These include consultants, program/school staff and administration. Ideas on role-models, emotional safety, open/honest communications and "coming out" will be some of the topics of discussion. Those who include themselves in the LGBT community, as well as all others who recognize the importance of diversity and inclusion for our students, are encouraged to join this group.
Parents Being Taught by their Children	Judge Mason	judge@judgemason.org	2004	'IECA Parents' is a group of IECA Members and Associate Members whose children, and a couple of grandchildren—ages early teens to 40+ - have struggled/are struggling while growing up. Share your story[ies]—or just sit quietly—in a confidential atmosphere of support and compassion.
Under the Radar	Nancy Masland	nancy@nancypmasland.com	2009	This group studies issues surrounding the under-represented/low-socioeconomic family and student needs. It also encourages greater diversity in schools, programs and colleges, students, staffing and administration. Funding, placement and cultural needs will be explored.
